Mr. Charles Thayer
OIC, Department of State

Dear Charlie:

I have tried in vain several times today to reach you by telephone. Since I am leaving in a few minutes for the West Coast I thought I had better write you this short note.

25X1 In accordance with our conversation yesterday, [redacted]
25X1 [redacted] who is my Field Operations Officer, and [redacted] who has taken over the wire service to you, will come to New York on Wednesday, the 24th. They will ascertain what time your office opens and try to arrive shortly thereafter. If they do not contact you again, you may expect them about 9 o'clock.

25X1 [redacted] is intimately acquainted with all of our detailed 25X1 operations, future plans, capabilities, etc. [redacted] is not so well versed but I thought it might be well for him to meet and discuss your service with some of the people on your various desks. It will also give him a more personal touch in his day-to-day dealings with your office.

25X1 We are very grateful for this opportunity to have a discussion with you and I am sorry that circumstances do not permit me to come personally. I do want to come at a later date when you return from your trip and see just how you handle our material. In the meantime, please feel free to discuss any problems whatsoever with [redacted] who is fully competent to represent me.

Sincerely,

25X1 [redacted]
K. White
